

On line... and focused on VCA2020

Dear friends,

Our team is strongly focused on our next 2020 great rendez-vous, the "VCA" and work is in progress.

We keep in mind Nicolas Boileau's words, a 17th century a French poet and critic, who (approximately) wrote:

*"Make haste slowly; do not be discouraged,
But return to your work frequently
Polish it consistently and polish it again, Add sometimes something and often erase"*

We have wiped clean a lot, and as we know we still have a lot to add, our website first draft is online:

www.vca2020.fr

According to the commonly cited formula, the website is under construction, and thus totally incomplete.

Those first pages demonstrate our works in progress and the full commitment of the whole team.

Updates will be made by the new term; news and other topics and pages will complete it.

Our website will become a hub (deliciously congested with Volvo cars...) and you will find answers to your questions and needs, in the following pages: registration, accommodation, what can be visited around the event site?, what's new? ...

In the meanwhile, we totally understand your eagerness, we ask for your understanding and rely on your interest. And don't forget...

Följ oss!*
